Experience the magic of the moment. Discover the beauty of the Goddess that has always been within you...

I am a priest of sacred sexuality and a tantric healer. I have been developing a special system of tantric teachings called Galactic tantra over the last ten years and holding tantra workshops in Slovenia, Croatia, Hungary, Czech republic, Germany and USA. Recently I am specializing in channeling Goddess energy for healing purposes as a priest of sacred sexuality. I was studying tantra with Bodhi Avinasha and Aristid Havlicek-Watanabe among other teachers. Spontaneous kundalini awakenings since my childhood have brought to me many memories from past lifetimes ranging from Pleiadian sensual Goddess experiences on a planet with green sun and two moons to initiation in mysteries of Isis in ancient Egypt and tantric trainings in Tibet and Ladakh. I have incorporated knowledge from those ancient mysteries in my healing sessions to enrich them and make them something special for you. My healing sessions are primarily created for women since it is the Goddess energy in every woman that I am most devoted to. Some sessions are also available for groups regardless of gender. Usually I begin with Bath ceremony for the Goddess or with the Tibetan tantric massage healing session which I give as a channel for Galactic goddess Iona who guides my hand. This experience can be deepened with the Goddess spot massage. In Empowerment session I create a healing space for women that wish to break free from social conditioning regarding their sexuality. You can combine this with Temple dance healing which basically serves the same purpose. For deeper healing and blissful experiences I recommend Tantric initiation which is a sacred journey of blending God and Goddess, learning to experience the flow of energies and capturing the magic of the moment. I offer Goddess worship sessions to women that would like to have their divinity recognized in a blissful healing ritual. For those Goddesses that would rather be the giver and learn how to please a man, God worship is the best choice. Mutual worship is a highly energetical tantric session where Goddess and God meet in the middle as divine equals. Spiritually gifted Goddesses can be initiated into Tantric lightwork which includes sacred erotic rituals on power spots throughout the world, opening dimensional portals for cosmic goddess energies.

All sessions are strong energetic events created just for you, so your specific wishes and interests are most welcome. For general public interested in tantra I offer Galactic tantra weekend workshops also. I love to travel so don't hesitate to contact me regardless of where you live.
